Each child gets a cake mix, icing, one large gift and one small gift.
We would like to give gifts to children up through 12th grade, but rarely have anything to offer over 10 years old.*
- I. Clients are interviewed each time they come for accountability to meet Food Bank requirements and for accountability to our supporters, but more importantly, to give interviewers an opportunity to minister to clients through listening and encouragement, prayer, sharing the Gospel, Christian ‘counseling’, making referrals to other agencies that can help the client, etc. Often, what turns out to be most meaningful part of the client’s visit to SH, is the encouragement they receive during the interview. As relationships are formed, we are able to minister to our clients on a deeper level. (Clients are asked if they would like for us to pray with them and share the Gospel - it is not forced upon the client and it is not a requirement to receive help from SH.)
- J. Clients who have income are asked to bring proof each time they come - this information, helps us to gather statistics so our supporters are able to have a clearer picture of those we serve. Clients receive food whether they bring proof of income or not.
- K. There is a limit on how much food, how many clothes, etc. clients may receive during their visit, based on the size of their family.
- L. Clients are encouraged to come no more than once a month - but if they are hungry, we feed them regardless of how often they need food. We want no one to be hungry!
- M. We buy wholesale, salvage, and surplus food from Second Harvest Food Bank (government programs, SNAP and TEFAP Programs are free; the rest we purchase at a reduced price.) We buy wholesale from the Food Lion Community Food Buying Program for non-profits. We buy retail from Aldi and Wal-Mart. We research the cost of each item we purchase so we can buy each item at the lowest cost available.

- N. Churches, families, Davie Co. Schools, Boy Scouts of America, Davie County Post Offices, Food For His Flock (sponsored by Davie Co. Civitan Clubs, with the help of churches and businesses in Davie Co. and Clemmons), businesses, social groups, civic groups, neighborhoods, etc. hold food drives for Storehouse
- O. We pick up meat, bread, sweets, and produce daily from the Food Lions in Davie County and Sheetz.
We pick up four days a week from Lowes and Food Lion in Clemmons.
We pick up weekly from Pizza Hut and Ketchie Creek Bakery.
- P. Local farmers and gardeners bring in extra produce during summer months and bring in eggs throughout the year. Deep Roots Community Garden (through First UMC) donates produce in the summer. The Society of Saint Andrew Gleaning contribute when they have extra produce.

Evangelism Ministries (1/12/93)

New Bibles are available for clients who do not have a Bible.

At-home Bible studies, salvation tracts and monthly devotionals are available to clients. The Plan of Salvation and 'What Do I Do After I Am Saved?' are included in the Client Information Handbook.

We plant seeds, water, and share the Gospel, as the Holy Spirit leads and opens doors during interviews. (Clients are not required to hear the Gospel or have prayer.) Almost weekly, at least one person is saved or rededicates their life to Christ. (We do not keep a count of those who rededicate their lives or give their lives to Christ because only God knows for sure who is truly saved.)

Interviewers ask clients if they would like for them to pray with them before they leave the interview office. The great majority very much want prayer!
